

Weekly Planner

Week of: _____

Use this planner to inspire fun activities for your kids this winter. Or, print your own planner template and fill it out with activities that best fit your child's needs at khan.co/KhanKids-WeeklyPlanner

| Ages 2-4 | Monday | Tuesday | Wednesday | Thursday | Friday |
|--|--|---|--|---|--|
|  Blocks & toys | Use gloves or mittens to measure objects in your home. How many mittens long is your table? | Crumple paper in the recycling bin to make snowballs. How many snowballs can you make? | Gather toys on white fabric to create a snowy winter scene.  | Build an ice tower out of ice cubes. How many cubes did you use? | Play themed math and logic lessons in Khan Academy Kids. |
|  Reading & listening | Read the book "Seal Pups" in Khan Academy Kids.  | Watch "Snow Monkey Storytime" on Circle Time. | Read the book "Glide on Ice" in Khan Academy Kids.  | Watch "How to Draw Ollo's Toys" on Circle Time. | Read the book "Snow Day" in Khan Academy Kids.  |
|  Sensory exploration | Take an evening walk to look at twinkly lights in the neighborhood. | Build a snowman factory by making snowmen out of playdough. | Fingerpaint on the table with shaving cream. | Enjoy the taste and smell of a warm hot chocolate.  | Bundle up and head outside to feel the wind, rain, or snow. |
|  Imaginary play | Dress up in winter clothes to be the abominable snowman. | Host indoor bobsled races with laundry baskets.  | Color your own winter scene in the "Create" tab of Khan Academy Kids. | Freeze an ice sculpture with Tinkergarten's Winter Wondermobile activity. | Put on a play with cozy sock puppets.  |
|  Arts & crafts | Design and decorate a large pinecone as a holiday tree or ornament.  | Recycle TP rolls to make a snowman family. | Make a paper plate reindeer with crafts by Super Simple. | Paint a winter watercolor scene.  | Cut paper snowflakes to put on windows. |
|  Helping at home | Fill out the inside of holiday cards with a colorful signature. | Wipe the counters and tables to keep them clean for winter meals and projects. | Set the table for a holiday dinner. Color a placemat for each guest. | Sing or play special songs to inspire holiday cheer. | Sort the laundry by folding socks into snowballs.  |